“Peelle Doors contain garage fire”

In a parking garage located at 422 West 15th Street, New York, NY an automobile caught on fire than exploded causing dozens of other cars to catch on fire which were also located on the 3rd floor of the building. FDNY reported the fire as a 5-6 alarm blaze scorching the top of the building. Fortunately in 1918 manually operated Peelle doors with a wood core interior were installed keeping the fire out of the hoistway and from spreading to the other floors. The Peelle doors remained intact after fire and the hoistway was untouched. Soon after the fire and after 87 years of
